

2025 National Teacher Lineup

April 2025 (ZOOM)

Kate Colleran (<https://katecollerandesigns.com>) – known for her braids (see website or Quilt Show episode #3311) and her quilt patterns that are a fun mix of modern and traditional. Her patterns are geared for the beginner to intermediate quilter. Her philosophy is that quilting is more than just making a quilt, it is about being creative, about learning, about enjoying the process and being part of a community.

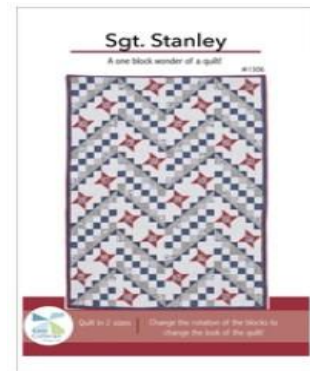

Workshops:

- 1) Picturesque – half square triangles and squares combine to create a floral effect.

Perfect for pre-cuts. Pattern is one of 13 in her intriguing book: Smash Your Pre-Cut Stash – a required purchase (~$25) over and above workshop registration fee ($40). Workshop will be Saturday, April 26, 2025 from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm. ZOOM from the comfort of your home, or with several others in a group setting at UMC.

- 2) Sgt. Stanley – a one block wonder that creates a variety of looks when you play with the layout. Traditional piecing pattern available at her website. Pattern purchase ($6) is required in addition to workshop registration fee ($40). ZOOM workshop will be Sunday, April 27, 2025, from the comfort of your home.

Lecture: Modern Traditional – Exploring Quilting Styles

CVQG April 28, Meeting – 6 pm, UMC

Sign up for Kate Colleran Workshops at the January, February, or March CVQG

Meetings or contact Amy Sams, 650-454-6579, samsamyd@comcast.net to reserve your spot in a workshop. Cost is $40 due at registration. If unable to pay at sign up, you will be wait listed until paid or class fills. Once confirmed in the workshop, order your book/pattern for the associated Supply List.

September 2025 (Live & in Person) – The weekend BEFORE Candy Dance

Chris Lynn Kirsch (www.chrisquilts.net) -- Chris enjoys traditional patchwork, creating fiber art, and just about everything in between. She has taught throughout the US (incl. the AQS Quilt Show in Paducah, KY) and to have authored five books on her unique techniques. Her award-winning quilts have been displayed though out the world at locations such as: American Quilters Society Shows; National Quilt Museum (Paducah, KY), IQA Festival (Houston, TX), Quilt Expo Europa, World Quilt & Textile Show (Christchurch, New Zealand). She has taught quilting and design for 23 years at the Wisconsin Waukesha County Technical College.

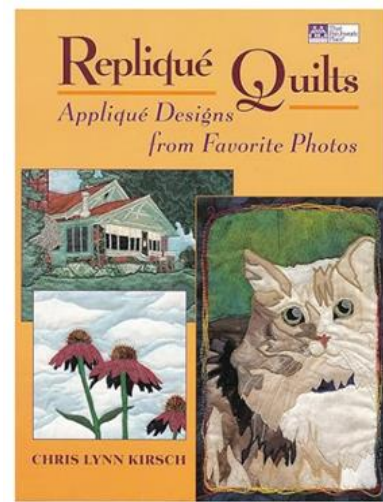

Workshops:

- 1) Seminole Borders - Simple strip piecing, cross-cutting and straight or diagonal re-sewing, can add a border that takes your quilt from simple to simply fantastic. Samples of a number of different Seminole patterns will be made to keep as a reference for future projects, or they may be stitched into your own “Seminole Sampler”. In-person workshop will be held Saturday, September 20, 2025, 9:30 am – 3:30 pm, location TBD: UMC or DCCC

- 2) Architectural Repliqué - Picture your home as a quilt. By using the technique from Chris’ first book you’ll be able to recreate any photograph as an accurate fabric replica in machine appliqué. No fusible, templates or degree in art required. In the first half of class students will learn to Repliqué on a sample block. In the second half, the students will complete their blocks while Chris works one on one with each quilter to determine fabric placement and appliqué order for their own picture. In-person workshop will be held Sunday, September 21, 2025, 9:30 am – 3:30 pm, Douglas County Community Center (DCCC), Gardnerville, NV

Lecture: Quilt Tales

CVQG September Meeting - 6 pm, UMC